RE: Expiring Insurance Certificate

Your firm's insurance certificate expiration dates are as follows:

Type of Insurance	Insurance Limit Type	Expiration Date
AUTO LIABILITY	COMBINED SINGLE LIMITS	12/01/2016
GENERAL LIABILITY/BODY INJURY	PER OCCURANCE	12/01/2016
GENERAL LIABILITY/BODY INJURY	AGGREGATE	12/01/2016
GENERAL LIABILITY/PROPERTY DAMAGE	PER OCCURANCE	12/01/2016
GENERAL LIABILITY/PROPERTY DAMAGE	AGGREGATE	12/01/2016
UMBRELLA	AGGREGATE	12/01/2016
WORKERS COMPENSATION	STATUTORY LIMITS	12/01/2016

If your firm has not recently provided work for the Nebraska Department of Roads (NDOR) or a Local Public Agency on Federal-aid projects and do not intend to, please send me an email. NDOR will keep the vendor number active, but will remove your firm from these insurance expiration notifications.

The insurance requirements for consultant services agreements can be found at: <http://www.transportation.nebraska.gov/rfp/>. It is important that your firm review these requirements and submit an insurance certificate that indicates compliance with these requirements. An example of an acceptable Certificate of Insurance can be found on the same webpage noted above. NDOR will not accept the Certificate of Insurance if it is incomplete or does not demonstrate that your firm has obtained the required insurance. Particular attention should be paid to the remarks section of the example Certificate which addresses the insurance requirements outlined in the agreements. The additional remarks on your firm's Certificate must address all the topics stated on the example.

The Certificate Holder box for the State only services should read:

Nebraska Department of Roads
PO Box 94759
Lincoln, NE 68509-4759

The Certificate Holder box for LPA services should read:

Nebraska Department of Roads
PO Box 94759
Lincoln, NE 68509-4759
and
{local public agency name}
{local public agency address}

Your insurance must cover your firm in the EXACT name used to contract with the Nebraska Department of Roads or Local Public Agencies. Failure to have a current Insurance Certificate approved on or before the expiration date may cause a delay in contracting for new services and paying invoices.

Please submit the firm's Certificate of Insurance renewal, in the form of an ACORD, to me by fax, mail, or email (preferred).

Particular attention should be paid to the remarks section of the example Certificate which addresses the insurance requirements outlined in the agreements. The additional remarks on your firm's Certificate must address all the topics stated on the example.

The Certificate Holder box for the State only services should read:

Nebraska Department of Roads
PO Box 94759
Lincoln, NE 68509-4759

The Certificate Holder box for LPA services should read:

Nebraska Department of Roads
PO Box 94759
Lincoln, NE 68509-4759
and
{local public agency name}
{local public agency address}

Your insurance must cover your firm in the EXACT name used to contract with the Nebraska Department of Roads or Local Public Agencies. Failure to have a current Insurance Certificate approved on or before the expiration date may cause a delay in contracting for new services and paying invoices.

Please submit the firm's Certificate of Insurance renewal, in the form of an ACORD, to me by fax, mail, or email (preferred).
